Why Subscribe?

Convenient and Affordable

Kids break reeds. Avoid last-minute panic purchases and be prepared for lessons, rehearsals, and concerts—all without breaking the bank.

Establish Healthy Habits

Rotating and replacing your reeds monthly prevents mold and other buildup caused by poor reed care—ensuring their reeds (and their body) are feeling fresh and healthy.

Improve Performance

Regular reed deliveries mean fresh, high-quality reeds are always on hand—supporting consistent reed care and performance, avoiding frustration, and letting their talent shine!

A Brand You Can Trust

Not all reeds are the same—despite how they appear online! Vandoren is the go-to brand for educators and performers worldwide—offering quality, consistency, and value for every level of player.

More About Vandoren

Family-owned and operated since 1905, Vandoren is the oldest reed company in the world. Our reeds are made from 100% natural cane, grown without chemical fertilizers or pesticides at any stage.
